

School choice: “Let parents be parents”

Bob Vander Plaats is a former public school teacher and high school principal. Today, he is president and CEO of The FAMIly LEADER, and in this video he gives 5 reasons why TFL supports putting Mom and Dad back in charge of their children's education:

1. Let parents choose what's best
2. Let parents raise children
3. Let schools go back to teaching
4. Let the resources follow the child
5. Let local schools run local schools
