

Victory for life on SF253!

The day in pictures

Hundreds of Iowans came to the State Capitol Monday in support of SF253, a bill that would establish life begins at conception in Iowa law.

Waving signs that read “She’s a Baby” and wearing the unity color black, defenders of human life outnumbered abortion advocates better than 10-to-1. And included in the crowd were over 50 pastors from various churches and denominations, all standing in support of life! It was the largest single outpouring of support for pro-life legislation yet this session.

The outpouring of support encouraged State Sens. Jason Schultz and Brad Zaun to pass SF253 out of subcommittee by a vote of 2-1, with Sen. Janet Peterson dissenting. A huge victory!
