

A Surprising Friendship

Some patrons of a local coffeehouse may have done a double-take when they saw TFL's President and CEO, Bob Vander Plaats, sitting down with Donna Red Wing, the executive director of One Iowa, the activist group seeking to make marriage include homosexual couples. A few days ago, Rekha Basu wrote a piece about this unconventional friendship when she sat down with Bob and Donna a couple weeks ago. Why is Bob sitting down with opponents of natural marriage? We encourage you to read this very interesting article to find out.

Photo credit: Des Moines Register