

Bob on MSNBC: “Roe v. Wade is going to end”

The MSNBC news program Velshi & Ruhle invited two, opposing guests to discuss the future of abortion in America – National Organization for Women President Toni Van Pelt and The FAMIly LEADER President and CEO Bob Vander Plaats.

In light of Justice Anthony Kennedy announcing his planned retirement on July 31 from the U.S. Supreme Court, the infamous abortion ruling Roe v. Wade hangs in the balance.

Watch as Van Pelt and Vander Plaats react very differently to the news:
