

Donald Trump on Steve Deace Show

On Tuesday night, Donald Trump was on the Steve Deace show. Steve asked him questions he's "never been asked before" like: Who is the real Donald Trump? Why are you going to Iowa to speak to the "God Squad?" and many more.

For 19 fascinating minutes, two alpha males, one an icon of pop culture, the other one of the most outspoken in Christian media, came together and and, out of mutual concern for country, found some common ground. You'll want to listen to this!
