

Lookin' Secure

Iowa has been blessed to be the first in the nation state to vote in the presidential election process. And they have taken that job very seriously. Iowa vets all presidential candidates, and gives them an equal opportunity to present their case as to why they should be president. The state of Iowa has given candidates like Huckabee and Santorum a chance. We are thankful and consider ourselves blessed that Iowans will likely have that opportunity again in 2016.
