

Now hiring: TFL is growing the team!

The FAMiLY Leader has been blessed with unprecedented growth and impact, and to advance the mission, we are seeking qualified applicants to fill the following three positions:

Director of marketing and communications

The director of marketing and communications shall maintain and seek growth in communication reach and effectiveness, including TFL messaging, as well as written, emailed, website, and social media content. The goal of this position is to increase the reach of TFL communications to a national level.

To see a job description and requirements for the director of marketing and communications position, click here.

Assistant to the president

Reporting directly to the president and CEO, the assistant provides executive support in a one-on-one working relationship. The assistant serves as the primary point of contact for internal and external constituencies on all matters pertaining to the Office of the President. The assistant also serves as a liaison to the board of directors and oversees special projects.

To see a job description and requirements for the assistant to the president position, click here.

Associate director of the Church Ambassador Network

Their overall responsibility of the associate director of the Church Ambassador Network is to assist the director in pursuing the vision to inspire the Church to engage government for the advance of God's kingdom, assist in making the strategy, and leading the local Iowa team to implement it.

To see a job description and requirements for the associate director of the Church Ambassador Network position, click here.

Qualified applicants are encouraged to contact Dr. Nathan Oppman via email at nathan@thefamilyleader.com.

The FAMiLY Leader is a non-profit Christian ministry based in Urbandale, Iowa, that seeks to strengthen families by inspiring Christ-like leadership in the home, the Church, and the government. We inspire Christians to engage with government for the advance of God's kingdom, with a vision to see a revived America that honors God and blesses people.