

TFL Capitol Connection, Ep. 11: Five good bills in 1 week!

The news media loves to cover the controversial bills The FAMiLY Leader works on, from marriage and religious liberty to life and more.

But TFL works every year on bills beyond the spotlight to advance righteous policy that honors God and blesses people.

This week, five of those lesser-known bills were passed through the Iowa House!

In this edition of the TFL Capitol Connection, The FAMiLY Leader's Chuck Hurley, Nathan Oppman, and Daniel Sunne break down some of the good bills that passed this week, including education tax credits – including a potential change for homeschooling families – parental rights, and second-chance legislation for former felons:
