

TFL Capitol Connection, Ep. 2: Big bills moving fast on life, education, donor privacy

This week at the Iowa Capitol has seen significant movement on some huge bills that impact Iowans and sit atop The FAMiLY Leader's priority list.

TFL's Bob Vander Plaats and Chuck Hurley discuss the bills moving rapidly through an accelerated legislative session, including the Protect Life Amendment, parental choice in education, and a widely supported effort to protect donors to non-profit organizations from social or political retribution:
