U.S. Senator Ben Sasse

Even in the dark world of government and politics, there are lights that shine brightly. U.S. Sen. Ben Sasse had never planned a life of politics, had never run for office before, but his straight talk and commitment to principle won him every one of Nebraska's 93 counties in the 2014 Senate election. And since taking office, Sasse has boldly challenged D.C. politics as usual to champion instead a humbler Washington, where the federal government does fewer things, but the more important things, more urgently, more transparently, and with less partisan bickering.

Ben and his wife, Melissa, have three kids, and that's where Sasse finds his highest callings in this life: as a husband, a father, and a churchman.

At The FAMILY LEADER's Celebrate the Family banquet, Sen. Sasse will deliver a message about thinking bigger than politics and serving a higher calling, no matter what your field of influence.

The FAMILY LEADER brings together ministers of God in church and government (Romans 13:6) to seek a revived America that honors God and blesses people. The Celebrate the Family fundraiser will support The FAMILY LEADER's mission to strengthen families by inspiring Christ-like leadership at home, in the church, and in the government.
